Q "Yes, Sir, only when he would complain of these big marches?"
 A "On the big marches - would he march with the Company?"
 A "He would sometimes struggle behind though, he seemed to have a desire to keep up."
 Q "When and where did you first know him to be sick?"
 A "I - if I ain't mistaken it was when we were on march through Va."
 Q "What part of Va?"
 A "On our way to Petersburg."
 Q "Was he sick so as to be in hospital while you were at Petersburg?"
 A "You are too hard for me now, Sir. Whether he ever went to hospital I can't say."
 Q "Do you distinctly recollect that he was ever sick at all in the service?"
 A "I know he used to have the diarrhea."
 Q "Was he with his Company in North Carolina?"
 A "I think he was."
 Q "Was he ever on furlough?"
 A "Don't think he was - am not sure, he used to often talk about wanting one."
 Q "Why did he want one?"
 A "He wanted to go home and see his family."
 Q "Do you know when he died?"
 A "Indeed I don't."
 Q "Have you seen him since the war?"
 A "No, Sir."
 and he further declares that he has no interest, direct or indirect, in the claim of Sophia Chambers for a pension; and further saith not.

Q "Have you any recollection of his having been hurt by a bullet falling on him?"
 A "No, Sir."
