A "Pretty much every day"

Q "When were you and he working then?"

A "Working for Mr Rowe"

Q "Was Andrew Bond working with you that time?"

A "No, Sir"

Q "Could or not Chambers have been sick from the 8th to the 21st February, 1862, so badly as to require the attendance of a doctor nearly every day, and you not have known it at the time?"

A "That's it, I think if he had been sick all that time I certainly would have known of it. My brother would have told me of it, he was more intimate with John than me"

Q "What was that brother's name, and where is he now?"

A "Dead, long ago, killed in the Army"

Q "Do you know or have you heard of what the matter was with Chambers when he came home from the Army, discharged?"

A "No, Sir"

Q "Did you not see him after he was discharged?"

A "No, Sir"

Q "Do you or not know whether Chambers was sick in the Army?"
