To whom it may concern.

Sir are sirs, this letter to you is regarding some things concerning my grandfather, John Smothers of the above address, who is now deceased. And secondly to get some information from you all concerning him. My name is Mrs Viola H. Johnson, his only grand daughter. I am married but unfortunately my husband and I are apart. I have two children one still going to school, and the elder one a boy, I had to stop from school on account of not being ~~able~~ to sufficiently able to provide him with the things he needed, to be able to continue. My mother who is deceased also + myself where the only ones to do for him, until
