STATE OF Pennsylvania }
COUNTY OF Philadelphia } ss.

On this 5th day of January A. D. 1875 personally appeared before me, the subscriber, a Notary Public in and for the County and State aforesaid, Henry Kell who, being first duly sworn according to law, declare and say that he is the identical person who has applied for a duplicate pension certificate No 49,335; and further that he regrets losing his certificate. He can't tell how it occurred. That he has always been careful of it. is a Temperance and industrious man and thinks that he either left it or lost it at the Pension Office, or on his way to Front & Market st. That he has inquired at Pension Office and no trace of it is to be found there; that he left word if it did come to be kept for him, but it has not been returned yet; that he has inquired of every person in the neighborhood of Front & Market st & posted an advertisement in the corner, but no intelligence of his certificate can be obtained. That his former certificate was accidentally destroyed by his wife, and the last one was lost in leaving the Pension Office, and that the usual place of keeping his Pension Certificate is in his small drawer at home
