The following is a copy of the original document as it appears in the original manuscript. It is a copy of a letter from George Washington to A. A. dated January 7, 1875. The letter is written in ink on a piece of paper that is slightly discolored and has some faint smudges. The handwriting is in a cursive script that is characteristic of the late 18th or early 19th century. The letter is addressed to A. A. and is signed by George Washington. The text of the letter is as follows: "Dear A. A., I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 1st inst. and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant, George Washington."
