

Also personally appeared Susan Jolly, residing at Frank R. Balgord, and Frank Rice, residing at Balt, Md., persons whom I certify to be respectable and entitled to credit, and who, being by me duly sworn, say they were present and saw Nancy A. Jolly, claimant, sign her name ~~(or make her mark)~~ to the foregoing declaration; that they have every reason to believe from the appearance of said claimant and an acquaintance with her of 30 years and three months years, respectively, that she is the identical person she represents herself to be; and that they have no interest in the prosecution of this claim.

The Act of June 27, 1890, requires, in widow's case:

1. That the soldier served at least NINETY DAYS in the War of the Rebellion and was HONORABLY DISCHARGED.
2. Proof of soldier's death (death cause need not have been due to Army service).
3. That widow is "without other means of support than her daily labor."
4. That widow was married to soldier prior to June 27, 1890, date of the Act.
5. That all pensions under this act commence from date of receipt of application (executed after the passage of act) in Pension Bureau.
