Hon. John C. Black,

Sir:

I have the honor to return herewith the papers in the above described claim together with the evidence obtained.

The claim was referred for special examination to determine existence of disability at discharge and since.

The claimant was duly notified of his rights and was present during the examination of about all witnesses and afforded an opportunity for their cross-examination. The testimony obtained in his absence was read to him and in his hearing.

The witnesses who testified before me are of fair reputation and all save the wife of claimant free from bias or prejudice. Claimant
