

In The Claim No 390,650
Of James W. Pinkney Co. B. 19. U. S. P. O.

State of Maryland } S. S.
Baltimore City }

Before The Subscriber a Justice of The Peace of The State of Maryland in and for Baltimore City personally appeared The Above Claimant James W. Pinkney. Whom I believe to be entitled to full credit and who being sworn in due form of law. Says that in regard to his ailment, back and head (results of Typhoid fever) that he did since discharged from The Service receive medical advice for such ailment from Dr. No cartman, whose testimony in the case is already furnished though he may not have so stated definitely, who always told him (Affiant) that as the ailment was a fixed result of the Typhoid fever there could be very little done therefor and to continue to use such palliative remedies as he had already directed for him. and that it was really useless for to consult a Physician any farther about the ailment as it was incurable. and he affiant ceased to consult him any farther. That he also did receive advice and treatment therefor from Dr.
Wiley who at the time resided and run a drug store at the corner of Asquith and Jefferson Sts. who is sometime since dead. That this last doctor treated him furnishing the medicine (in office or store)