

Hospital Baltimore City Md to where he (affiant) was sent from a New York hospital Convalescent from a wounding received in battle; Where (McKim's hospital) he was (1865) - he found said Pinkney Convalescent from as he (Affiant) learned, a severe attack of Typhoid fever; At which time Pinkney was evidently broken down in Constitution, very lean and complaining of head and spinal weakness from said fever; That he (Affiant) made a stay of a few weeks at said place (McKim's hospital) was discharged therefrom where he left said Pinkney still complaining that he (Affiant) knew said Pinkney
