

67 170.294

3-356.
(Old No. 3-145 a.)

Additional Act of June 27, 1890.

INVALID PENSION.

Claimant: Isaac H. Baker
 P. O.: #906 Mc Donough St, Rank: Sergeant
 County: Baltimore, Company: E.
 State: Maryland, Regiment: 30. U. S. C. Vol. Inf.
 Rate: $ _____
 Pensioned for _____ per month commencing August 23, 1900
 Right to benefit secured now on the rolls under general law of an equal rank with former state Quartermaster for Apr 6, 1901
 Inability to earn a support by manual labor. REJECTED April 22, 1901.

Southern

RECOGNIZED ATTORNEY.

Name: A. Partett Lloyd, Fee: $ 10.
 P. O.: Baltimore, Maryland, Agent to pay.

APPROVALS.

Submitted for March 19, 1901, J. D. Buckley, Examiner.

Approved for injury to back, left side and leg, gen. debility, piles, and rheumatism. The two last named heretofore alleged but not established. Rejected stomach trouble, Ch. diarrhoea, kidney and bladder trouble, lumbago, defective vision and nervous affection. (Not Est.) No notable disability subject to action of War Dept. See slip. Former report of War Dept. under date of March 26, 1896.

Approved for Rheumatism piles and general debility

Apr 4, 1901, J. J. Cooney, Legal Reviewer.

Aggregate of disabilities shown, permanent in character: $ 6
 Not legally established -
 Former report of War Dept. adhered to.
J. H. Bell, Medical Referee.

Apr 4, 1901, J. H. Bell, Re-Reviewer.

Subd Apr 5, 1901.

Now pensioned under other laws at $ 6.00 per month for injury of back, left side & leg from contusion of shell, from March 2, 1890
 Enlisted Feb. 29, 1864, honorably discharged May 27, 1865
 Reenlisted _____, 18, honorably discharged _____, 18

Declaration filed May 11, 1890, alleges permanent disability, not due to vicious habits, from injury of back, left side & leg, stomach trouble, chronic rheumatism, piles, pain across small of back.
 Decln. filed Aug. 23, 1900, alleges injury of back, left side & leg, stomach trouble, chronic diarrhoea, kidney & bladder trouble, lumbago, defective vision, nervous affection & general debility.

No _____, M. C.