

3, Chas Hanback

have done in this case.

You have failed to advance any good reason why the charge of faulty and insufficient work should be removed. Your appeal is not sustained.

Upon receipt of this letter, and accompanying papers of the claim, you are directed to re-write your report, eliminating therefrom all extraneous matter and language of an offensive character, and make the Bureau letter of Sept. 23 and this letter exhibits therein.

Very respectfully,

H. C. Jones
Commissioner.

3 3/4 Ex XX