Washington D. C. October 22. 1897.

Sir:

Herewith are returned all papers in the above entitled claim for pension, filed under the general law and referred to the S. E. Division for special investigation to determine whether or not, the alleged injury of back originated in the service and line of duty, and came to me for further examination in Washington D. C.

The testimony of Gilbert Adams, a comrade was secured and forms a part of this report. He is a colored man of fair intelligence and good repute and is now employed as laborer, in the Interior Department, this city.

2 He did not recall at first any injury received by the claimant, but after the claimant's statement was read, he very promptly declared that he remembered that at the time and place stated, he
