

heard the soldier complain of an injury
and that it seemed to be severe.

I am of the opinion that the claim is one of merit and recommend admission.
No other witnesses in this district.

Very respectfully,

J. D. Bloodgood
Special Examiner.

Hon. H. Clay Evans,
Commissioner.

P. S. I took this claim up out-of its order on account of having new examiners under my instruction and desired to give them practice
in writing depositions in a plain case.
