

Page 14

that was the matter with him I recalled him as well as it was yesterday. He was as well and went young fellow as there was in the company He certainly was a worthy young fellow. These were 12 brothers of the Italian and I saw them at I recalled of his getting hurt was captured 29 September 1864 at Fort Gilmore and was never with the company after that. He might have got hurt after that but if he did I know nothing about it. I saw him again since the war. I suspect it was that you have mentioned it that he was captured when I was at Fort Mifflin and I recalled of his being in prison with me. I don't recall of his coming out of prison I don't recall of seeing Italian Prisoner after that I was out of prison. I was at Rendell with the company Capt. Regal of the 1st anything the matter with Italian at Rendell. Some of them had

Attest
 C. R. Butler
 J. A. Ashbury

John P. Russell
 Deponent.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 26th day of February, 1896, and I certify that the contents were fully made known to deponent before signing.

Joseph S. Hadcox
 Special Examiner.