

of a comrade who was assisting him.

I was unable to secure the name of that comrade & the only witness found who was present at the time of the alleged injury is William H. Wilson, and his testimony is somewhat conflicting.

4 The names of Sgt. Wm Hutchinson, St. Robert Spennett, and Emory Cooper all of "D" 7 U.S.C. 1. were given me as persons who were in the detail and were present when Clint. was injured at Camp Benedict, Md.

I was unable to locate any of persons named above and suggest that if necessary the A. & S. Div. be called on for their address.

The claimant states that during the fall of 1864 he was captured by the enemy and placed in rebel prisons - Libby and Bull pen and while in Libby prison he & other Union prisoners were compelled to work at building breast-works for the enemy in front of Richmond Va and that while lifting heavy stones at that
