

saw me about: 1867. I could not see across the street and my wife used to take me to the Russell's Cor-of Franklin & Park sts. He went from there to Philadelphia. He said my eye trouble was from the sunstroke
 I was run almost to death with diphtheria at Brimmerville Tex.
 It never bothered me much after I came home

I have heard this deposition read. My answers are correctly given

J. M. Hardison John W. X. Davis
 G. B. Hammett

Deponent.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 17 day of Dec.
 1894, and I certify that the contents were fully made known to deponent before signing.

Page 13 Deposition A

6-515

Special Examiner