

Page 22

It was from contracting well.

Do you know of being somewhere
I heard him say something of that kind
It appears like it was down in Texaco he was somewhere.

Have you known him to have business in Yorba?

Yes, perhaps, goodness in the heart. I have seen him think several affairs of that

That has been 4 or 5 yrs ago - I guess. Yes the fun seems to appeal him a great deal.

He always was a man of good habits an up right man.

I was witness once in his pension claim.
I went with him and some other witnesses + Lloyd officer. I think it was Lloyd with my officer.

Were you sworn to it.

Yes sir.

Where -

I went to the Court House I think.

Now were you not sworn in the case by a man in Lloyd's office.

I think we both went out and to the Court
I was sworn with Ben Smith in his case. & was sworn in Lloyd's office that time.

Louis father and my mother were relatives some way. I have no interest in his pension claim.

I have heard this deposition read My answer are correctly recorded.

Attest:

John J. Edman

C. A. Hareley

his Alfred X. Harder
man. Deponent.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 11 day of February, 1895, and I certify that the contents were fully made known to deponent before signing.

W. L. Miller

Special Examiner.