

3-356.
(Old -145 a.)

Act of June 27, 1890.

INVALID PENSION.

778491.

Claimant,

P. O., 610 Sterling Street,

County, Baltimore,

State, Maryland.

Rank,

Company,

Regiment,

Rate, $ per month, commencing

REJECTED.

Pensioned for inability to earn a support by manual labor.

RECOGNIZED ATTORNEY.

Name, A. P. Lloyd,

P. O., Baltimore, Md.

Fee, $

Agent to pay.

APPROVALS.

Submitted for

Ref. Jan. 10, 1902,

G. W. Dorman, Examiner.

Approved for rejection of sunstroke, malaria, disease of eyes, kidneys and back, vertigo and general debility, no disability shown under Act of June 27, 1890 subject to approval of medical referee.

Approved for rejection. A ratable degree of disability is not shown under Act of June 27-1890.

Aggregate of disabilities shown, permanent in character: $

Jan. 30, 1902, R. L. Underwood, Legal Reviewer.

July 7, 1902, C. B. Johnson, Re-Reviewer.

Medical Examiner.

Feb. 12, 1902,

Medical Reviewer.

No pensioned under other laws at $ per month for

Enlisted Oct. 15, 1864, and honorably discharged Oct. 15, 1865

Reenlisted not, 18, honorably discharged, 18

Declaration filed August 26, 1890, alleges permanent disability, not due to vicious habits, from disease of eyes, malaria, sunstroke, injury of leg and rheumatism. Rejected. May 14, 1891 alleges malaria, sunstroke, rheumatism, vertigo, disease of eyes, head, and kidneys.

May 18, 1896 alleges malarial poisoning, sunstroke, disease of eyes, stomach, kidneys and back, vertigo, rheumatism, dyspepsia, diarrhoea. Rejected.

Ne, M. C.

Claimant does not write.