Claimant,

Soldier, George Green

Co. A, 39 Reg't USCA

Respectfully Submitted to the Chief of Board of Review with a view to a special examination to determine the general merits the value of the evidence on file and the credibility of the witnesses A special investigation is deemed necessary for the reason there is no record of the alleged disease of heart and Vertigo and no medical evidence of treatment in the service or since discharge until 1896. the Claimants declared inability to furnish medical treatment since discharge until 1896 on account of death of the physicians
