And of Francis W. Francis, J. Wilson, further swears that after he was wounded at the Battle of Fort William Virginia, on the 29th day of September 1864, he was taken to a field hospital, on the James River, from there to Hamilton Hospital Virginia, in Hampton, and from there to Davis's Belmont Hospital, New York Harbor, from which Hospital he was discharged on the 14th day of October 1865, since which date he has not been in the military or Naval Service of the United States.
