Dear Madam:

In reply to your letter of the 10th. ult., you are informed that the accrued pension due at the death of Charlotte A. Jackson, the pensioner in the above-cited case, which is the only fund from which any allowance can be made by this Bureau, is available as reimbursement of the expenses of her last sickness and burial, provided she did not leave sufficient assets to meet such expenses.

If you desire to file a claim for reimbursement in the case, the enclosed blank form may be used for that purpose, and your attention is invited to the copy of the law and instructions printed thereon.

Very truly yours,

E. W. Morgan,
