

I lived at 1139 Low St, but he did not stay all night with me, I did think of marrying him but I changed my mind, and never had conversation with him or any other man since. - I have a boarder named Johnny Jones boarding with me, he is about twenty-three years old. At turning Johns death I lived at 1228 Short Alley, from there moved to 7139 Low and then to 6616 McCleary Court, and from there to my present address. I own no property at all only my furniture worth about $300 and have no income except what my boarder Johnny Jones pays for his board, which is $200 and $25 per week, and I what I earn by washing, ironing and scrubbing or any work I can get.

I understand my rights and privileges and do not come to be present at further examination but will be if I can.

I did tell Mr. Catter that I had lived with my husband up to the time of his death when he took my statement, but I did it because I had to be taken so before when he came around to my house and asked me
