

Office is 3 doors south of Lloyds Office on St. Paul St.

She says there was no one else in Mr Lloyds Office that day but "Miss Bessie". That Miss Bessie would not go with her to the "Sydney" because there was no one to leave in the office - and that she touched the pen to the paper at the Lloyds office & was sworn. and that Miss Bessie and the young man she describes as O.W. Beale were not then with her and that she never saw Beale (Ollie) till a later date.

They apparently O.W. Beale and P.B.
Eders - make oath that they were present and saw Alice Stinson make her mark to the foregoing declaration; and that they have every reason to believe from the appearance of said claimant and an acquaintance with her of - years and - years respectively that she is the identical person she represents herself to be. and that they have no interest in the prosecution of this claim.

Affiant Edward Smith affirms to have been properly sworn
