Hon Wm Lochren

Commissioner of Pensions

Sir: I have the honor to return the papers and submit report in the above entitled claim referred to S & E Division for investigation as to validity of papers filed - the atty being A P Lloyd.

The papers in this case would have been reviewed without seeing the claimant - under recent orders. but I had testimony of witnesses that soldier said on his death bed that his wife had abandoned him for an other man. and that they were not living together at date of his death. It seemed probable to me that what rights claimant might have as widow would be derived from the provisions of
