

ulent papers. to the Pension Office for filing in claims to secure the payment of money from the U.S. Treasury.

One thing or the other is true of Beale was sworn. He swore falsely, and the Magistrate knew it when he affixed his jurat. If he was not sworn. both Beale and the Magistrate as well as Mrs. Tervo assisted in the preparation and presentation of a fraudulent paper.

Mr. Hewson a reliable intelligent man repudiates entirely the contents of his affidavit in the invalid claim.

I recommend reference for consideration and action of the Law Division.
