

Page 10. Our house was going to have Had John Duncan been married before his marriage to you

No sir. I never heard of him being married

No sir. I had no children by John Duncan I never had any children in my life. I never gave birth to any child.

When we first got married. we lived at Mrs Eliza Smith on Jones Court - the other side of Washington St. - about 9 months. Then we moved to ~~Durham St.~~ moved to Mulliken St. between Caroline & Dallas Sts. lived there near 5 years and then moved into same house with Mrs Smith again on Durham St. near Bank St. I don't know exactly how long we lived there I don't know exactly when we moved from there

My husband died Nov 20. 1893. on N Spring St. No 771 or 777. I think it was consumption he had.

Where did you live when your husband
John Duncan died

On Spring St.

What number.

Either 777 or 771.

Were you living in some house with him up to time he died and at the date of his death

Yes sir. I wasn't there when he died I was at work that morning and came back after he died.

How long had he had consumption when he died

Oh some 6 or 7 or 8 months I guess. I don't know.

What ailments or complaints, sickness or disabilities had he the first year after your marriage to him? Any?
He always had an awful cough
