DEPOSITION B

Case of Alice Duncan, No. 573997

On this _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____ County of _____

State of _____, before me, _____, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Eliza Smith Conlunee, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: then that day

What persons did you see at that office besides the lady that wrote your evidence? There was a gentleman then attending to business - who belonged there. He was about your age. Businessman and I believe had brown hair. a stout looking gentleman. Now - did you go to another office that day? No just went to that office Cor Saratoga & N Paul-sts - and from there home.

Was not another man called in to administer the oath to you? No.

A stout middle aged man?

No sir - not there. Alice had to go somewhere to a squires office I believe and delivered a message - and I waited for her on the corner while she attended to the business and then he went home logarithm.

Did you go with her to the squires office, a few doors from that office where the lady did the writing for you?

No sir I did not go there at all. When I heard Alice went I did not go in at all. The other lady, writer with me I don't know you the other lady was Elsie Wright. She waited with me. She did not go.
