

and Mrs. Hallis and her husband. Some times if on evening my husband goes round. then with me. I have seen them as late as 10 o'clock of an evening. and I never saw nor heard any thing to indicate that she had a man and I think if any one would know it. I ought to.

I was a witness once in her case. I was with her several times at Mr. Loyes but never had any thing to say only once. That time the lady Miss Bessie. questioned me and I told her I never heard him say he was married before his marriage & this but had heard him say she was the only one he ever had. -- that he was never married in his life before his marriage. I also told her that she was never married but once in her life and that was to Mr. Duncan. I told her I was not present at the marriage but heard of it the next day. She wrote it down.

Did you sign it.

No sir I just touched the pen. When you sworn to it.

No sir. She said it wasnt necessary but that I might be needed.

When was this

Oh away last summer. but I couldnt tell what day and date.

She was at Mr. Loyes office that day.

There was no one else in that back
