I don't know and never saw Stevens wife or widow to know her I used to help Stevens in his last sickness. He spoke to me about his wife.

But he recognizes her as his wife?
Well he told me from the way she had treated him. He didn't intend to recognize her any more.

He'd never indicated she had an other man.

I have no interest in the matter
I don't know who swore me in the case nor who went to Glasgow with me.

I didn't pay no attention to it and it passed out of my memory.

I have heard the deposition read
My answers are correctly recalled.

William Henson

Deponent.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 21 day of June 1894, and I certify that the contents were fully made known to deponent before signing.
