

JACKET NO.

Law Office of A. PARLETT LLOYD, S. E. Cor. St. Paul and Saratoga Streets, Baltimore, Md.

Claim No. 573,997 Of Co.

Regiment.

1928. S. C. L.

On this day and date below written, personally appeared the affiant whose signature is hereto affixed and who being duly sworn according to law testified as follows:

"My age is 29 years, I reside in Baltimore, Md., at No. _____ Street, _____

Street, neither the soldier John Guncion nor myself were ever married before our intermarriage.
It is impossible for me to furnish any record of our marriage. Rev.
Mr. Fox with performed the ceremony and since then. I have made no return of the marriage. We might keep some record. She was quite ill at the time. I married her. I have tried to keep some record of our marriage.
I had a certificate of marriage but it was destroyed. I was acquainted with my husband several years before our marriage and always told him that he was never reasonably married.

This testimony was all written in my presence by my own oral statements made at the Office of A. P. Lloyd W. C. Brown on Aug - 1893 that it, making them from notes then aided or dictated by myself printed or written statements or regular prepared or dictated by any other person than those named in the Hon. Com.

~~I have no interest in this claim~~

(If witness sign by mark, two persons who can write sign here.)

State of Maryland, Baltimore City, Ss :

SWORN TO AND SUBSCRIBED BEFORE ME, this day of Aug 1893, and I certify that the contents of the foregoing were fully made known and explained to affiant above named, (whom I certify to be credible) before his making oath thereto and I have no interest in prosecution of this claim.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

Instructions—
Read Carefully.

Under the order of the Commissioner of Pensions number 229 in the preparation of testimony in support of claims in pension cases, all statements affecting the particular case and not merely formal, must be written or prepared to be written, in the presence of the witness, and from his oral declarations then made to the person who then reduces the testimony to writing or then prepares the same to be typewritten. And such testimony must embody a statement by the witness that such testimony was all written or prepared for type-writing (as the case may be) in his presence, and only from his oral statements then made; and also the time, place, and person, when, where and to whom he made such oral statements, and that in making the same he did not use, and was not aided or prompted by any written or printed statement or recital, prepared or dictated by any other person; and not attached as an exhibit to his testimony.
