

JACKET No.

Law Office of A. PARLETT LLOYD, S. E. Cor. St. Paul and Saratoga Streets, Baltimore, Md.

Claim No. 573,447 Of Widow John Duncan Co. J Regiment. 19 U.S.C.T.

On this day and date below written, personally appeared the affiant whose signature is hereto affixed and who being duly sworn according to law testified as follows:

"My age is 39 years, I reside in Baltimore, Md., at No. 1167 Low Street, neither the soldier John Duncan nor myself were ever married before our intermarriage. It is impossible for me to furnish any record of our marriage. But my father performed the ceremony and since then I have made no return of the marriage, nor did he keep any record. He was quite ill at the time he married me. I must have had a certificate of marriage but it was destroyed. I was separated with my husband several years before our marriage but always told my that he was never previously married.

This testimony was all written in my presence from my own oral statements made at the Office of A. P. Lloyd & Co. Baltimore Aug 1-1893 that in making them I have not been aided or prompted by any printed or written statement or recital prepared or dictated by any other person. I have read the order 279 of the War Comm.

I have no interest in this claim

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

Instructions—Read Carefully. Under the order of the Commissioner of Pensions number 229 in the preparation of testimony in support of claims in pension cases, all statements affecting the particular case and not merely formal, must be written or prepared to be type-written in the presence of the witness, and from his oral declarations then made to the person who then reduces the testimony to writing or then prepares the same to be type-written. And such testimony must embody a statement by the witness that such testimony was all written or prepared for type-writing (as the case may be) in his presence, and only from his oral statements then made; stating also the time, place, and person, when, where and to whom he made such oral statements, and that in making the same he did not use, and was not aided or prompted by any written or printed statement or recital, prepared or dictated by any other person; and not attached as an exhibit to his testimony.
