

to the Shuter St.

'Claimant' was never married until she married Charles Seymour that I ever heard of she roomed at her sister's house and worked out at service before they were married. I never heard that Seymour was ever married before he married Jane.

In speaking of her he always referred to her as his first wife.

I know that his wife Jane died years before he married this claimant because I saw her dead body.

My answers answers are correctly recorded herein.
