Mar. 2, 1921.

Dr. J.J. Morrissey, Secretary
Board of U. S. Examining Surgeons
3632 Roland Ave.,
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Doctor:

It will be appreciated if the member of your board residing nearest the above named claimant proceed to the home of said claimant and examine him carefully in accordance with the inclosed instructions. His post-office address is 229 North Dallas St., Baltimore, Md.

The examination should be made as soon as possible at a time which will not conflict with a meeting of the board. Before going to his residence the surgeon should ascertain by correspondence with the postmaster, or otherwise, whether the claimant is still residing there.

All papers should be returned with this order and the certificate of examination. In preparing the voucher for services, the surgeon should closely observe the directions in Form 3-168,

Very truly yours,

H. A. Royce
F. D. BYINGTON
Acting Commissioner.
