Madam

My recent visit to the dept. quite plainly indicates why you have not called at my office to repay me for the services done you & your brother.

I am really more than surprised and, when forced to think that you much more he should drop so low as to say, I will not repay him, when you know the work done money paid out when every one said you would get nothing, I persisted & secured you the pay which no one else could or would have done. The lowest principaled binggo will have sufficient gratitude to cover pay expenses I could not believe you would be so unprincipaled. I have waited all sufficient time I will still hold that you have better regard & look for you at my office, if not soon. I will take other steps & see what can be done, awaiting your coming I am.

Mrs. F. M. Jones

Very truly,

Chas L. Skinner
