ROOM 17 CUSTOM HOUSE,
BALTIMORE, MD.

The Postmaster,

Lutherville, Baltimore Co., Md.,

Dear sir:

Some days ago I addressed a letter to William Foote, a colored man of your vicinity, which called for an early reply, being of importance in specially examining the pension claim, No. 933,300. No reply has been received.

The object of this letter was to determine whether William Foote knew a colored soldier named James Anderson in his company during the war.

Kindly send word to said Foote that the government desires answer from him without delay, and advise me as to result, on this sheet, and return the same to me in the inclosed envelop, which needs no stamp. Your early response and co-operation in this matter will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,

L. S. Perkins

Special Examiner.

Q. - Does William Foote know what has become of James Anderson of his company, and can he give a personal description of the said Anderson?

Answer:

I saw William Foote and he says he does not know where James Anderson lives but knows some of his relatives and as soon as he can see them will let you know what he can about him
