

guardian, the Bureau is without authority to institute proceedings against her or her bondsmen, with a view to recovering any part thereof, but it is evident that she has converted a part of the money to her own use, and the new guardian, when appointed, may consider the propriety of such action.

Respectfully,

G. M. SALTZGABER.

Commissioner.

JCS/omr

MSA-SC-4126-174-64