CLAIMANT'S FINAL STATEMENT.

Deposition.....

Case of Mary E.Cornish, No. 1121801

On this 7 day of August, 1920, at Baltimore county of Baltimore City, State of Maryland

before me, W.H.Stovall, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Mary E.Cornish, the applicant in the aforesaid pension claim, and made answer to interrogatories as follows:

Q. If it should become necessary to further examine your claim, by taking testimony of witnesses elsewhere, do you desire to be present in person or represented by an attorney, or both, at such further examination? If so, you will be notified as to the place and time when it is to be made.

A. I do not.

Q. State what contract or contracts you have made with any person for services in prosecuting your claim for pension, and whether such contract or contracts were written or verbal.

A. I have no contracts. See my initial statement.

Q. State what payments have been made by you, or at your instance, in connection with the prosecution of your claim, to whom paid, and all the circumstances connected therewith.

A. See initial statement.
