

GENERAL AFFIDAVIT.

State of Maryland, Baltimore City, to wit:

BE IT REMEMBERED, That on this 10th day of December

A. D. 1910, before me, the subscriber a Justice of the Peace of the said State, in and for the City aforesaid, personally appeared Mary Cornish

Age 31 years. 0912 St Bernard Court Balto Md. in the claim for Half Pension of her husband Joseph Cornish, to C. B. 39 M. P. C. Div. No 215, 635 and made oath in due form of law that I have been personally and well acquainted with the claimant and her husband Joseph Cornish, who I know of my own personal knowledge deserted her about nine months ago for no fault of hers or misconduct on her part. And the only reason I can find is that he wanted to get rid of her, as she is a woman of good moral character. And a true wife to him, he left her and her children without means of support and in necessitous circumstances. She owns no property real or personal except some old and worn furniture. She is not a strong woman and prior and since his desertion she was compelled to go out to work to assist in the support of herself and children. And since his desertion she has been almost constantly under the care of a physician. Her health apparently broken down, I myself assisting in caring for her and the children for nothing to eat. And know her to be a moral and worthy woman. I further testify that I have no interest in the claim.

Mary Cornish
