

Law Office of A. PARLETT LLOYD, S. E Cor. St. Paul & Saratoga Sts, Baltimore, Md.

Claim No. 328 383 Of ^{Widow of} Charles Grandison Co. B.

39 Reg't. U. S. A.

On this day and date below written, personally appeared the affiant whose signature is hereto affixed and who being duly sworn according to law testified as follows:

"My name is Lewis Tartar. I am 66 years old, and

I reside in Baltimore, Md. at No. 915 Druid Hill Ave. Street.

I knew ^{the} late soldier, Charles Grandison, from his boyhood. He was always a sound, hearty man before he enlisted in the U. S. Army. I saw him immediately after he came home from the army, and he did not then look the healthy, strong man that he did when he enlisted, being considerably broken up with the rheumatism. This rheumatism continued from this time until his death. It was at times very severe, and he could barely hobble along. He also suffered greatly from shortness of breath and symptoms of suffocation as if he had something the matter with his heart. I was in the habit of seeing him every day for years.

Witnesses to signature of Affiant.

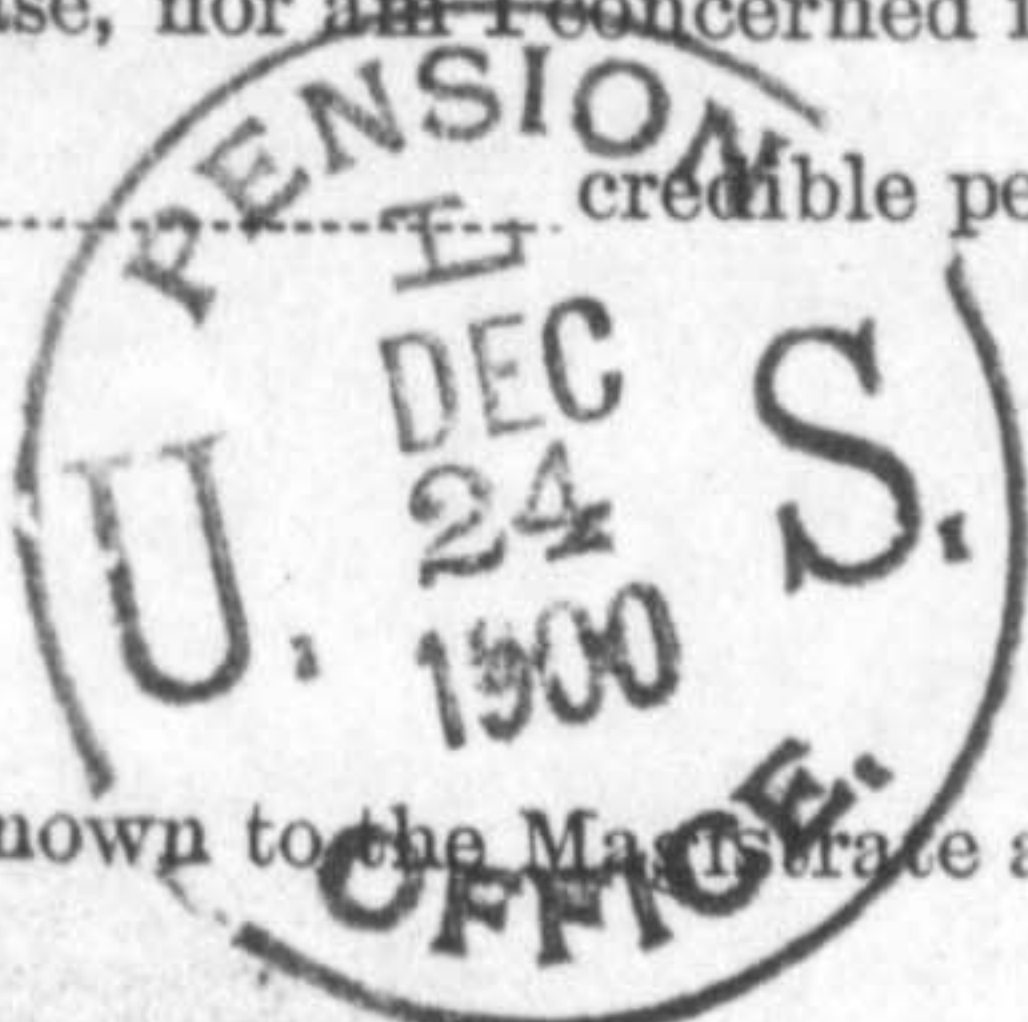

1. W. B. Hammond
2. Chas. F. Knott

I have no interest in this claim.
