

DEPOSITION E.

Case of Sarah Adams, No. 1,009,977

On this _____ day of Nov., 1913, at

State of _____, county of No. C., before me, _____, a

Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions. Personally appeared _____, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

1 I know how many. I was the youngest of the family and I
 2 only remember three of the children and there are only
 3 two of us now living, my sister and myself. My
 4 sister's name is Lavinia Cottman; her husband's name
 5 is George Cottman, but he and she do not live together.
 6 My said sister lives at Sharon Hill, Delaware Co. Pa.
 7 She keeps a little grocery store there. My said sister is 8 just a year older than I. No Sir, I do not know
 9 when my mother and father were married to each other.
 10 Yes, I testified in this claim before [B. J. P.]

11 This deposition has
 12 been read to me, questions read and my
 13 answers thereto are correctly recorded herein.
