

DEPOSITION B

Case of Sarah Adams, No. 1009977

On this 16th day of March, 1914, at

Baltimore, county of Balto City

State of Md, before me, W. H. Stoll

a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared

Annada Collick, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 59 years old, Occupation house wife, Post Office 1039
W. Lexington St, Baltimore Md.

I am the wife of John H Casick, teamster, and I knew a man named John Adams when he lived in Baltimore his former home being at Snow Hill but he said that he moved from this city to Philadelphia some years ago and I have not seen him since.

John Adams was a fireman on boats running between Baltimore and Snow Hill Md and had a wife named Sarah and I knew her at Snow Hill when she was young and know that John Adams was her first husband and they were never separated or divorced.

I do not know whether John Adams had been seriously injured.

I never knew him until shortly after he married Sarah Bennett.

I have no knowledge of him
having a former wife named Mary.

John Adams and his wife Sarah lived near me at the corner of German
