Co. H, 7 U.S.C. Vol. Inf.

January 19, 1911.

Mr. John E. Adams,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Sir:-

You are advised that the record of the date of your birth filed on the 11th instant, does not warrant disturbance of rejection of your claim for pension based upon age 70 years, for the reason that it was not made until 1878, and is not sufficient to establish your age.

Very respectfully,

Commissioner.
