ADAMS, Sarah
W. C. 773,307

Dear Sir:

This is in reply to your letter of May 8, 1933.

No provision has been made for Government allowance for the burial or other services for widows of veterans except accrued pension.

The matter of accrued pension cannot be given attention until this office is adjusted in conformity with the new regulations under the recently revised legislation.

All future communications relative to this case should bear the pensioner's name and refer to the number W. C. 773,307.

Respectfully,

GEORGE E. BROWN,
Director of Compensation.
