 DIVISION

Mr. William J. Wray, Atty.
 Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

In the above entitled claim for pension there should be furnished the best obtainable evidence, record if possible, showing the fact and date of marriage of the claimant and soldier and the date of death of his former wife Mary.

The testimony of credible witnesses who knew the soldier from the time when he became of marriageable age should also be furnished showing whether he was married more than once before his marriage to the claimant, and if so, when and how such marriage terminated.

Very respectfully,

J. M. [Signature]
 Commissioner
