Your attention is invited to the enclosed copy of a letter received in this office from Mrs. Florence Williams, 1525 East Chase Street, Baltimore, Maryland, daughter of the above named Civil War veteran and stepdaughter of the pensioner. As this letter was received January 15, 1935, the year 1934 shown on the letter is apparently a typographical error.

You are requested to make an investigation of the case and advise this Service whether the pensioner, Mrs. Sarah J. Bennett, 937 Stirling Street, Baltimore, Maryland, is capable of managing her own affairs or whether a guardian should be appointed to protect her interests.

Your attention is also drawn to the fact that
