

2.

even a representation should not be neglected in the affections of her husband & children.

When my stepmother is now residing is not exactly the fitting atmosphere for a woman of power & - others, I have learned. When I pay her occasional visits, she gives and tells me that she wants to be with me.

Now finally, I am not able to pay for heard me into the lady I am now. I am gradually disappearing & I am not particularly religious my duty to her. It was her duty - real and moral - that heard me; now it is my turn to pay her.

3.

I am willing to launch a small apartment and take her into me, but it will be living in her hands; however, to secure