DEPOSITION B.

Case of Alice Barker, No. 556, 156

On this 11th day of March, 1892, at Continued County of Ark., before me, Alice Barker, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Alice Barker, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says:

The bells rang just before he was born. My husband was in New York and was to get here Christmas but failed to get here and got in at 7 o'clock in the morning after Elijah was born. I am positive as to these facts even if it does make more than ten months difference between Jacob and Elijah.

My husband was in New York again when Elijah was only a few months old. I know Elijah was real smart about cutting his teeth as all my children were.

The memoranda furnished you by me were made by my husband in his life-time and I suppose them to be correct. The letters given you are also all genuine.

My husband died about June 1, 1892. He died of the grip and consumption and lumbago.
