DEPOSITION F.

Case of Alice Barker, No. 556.156On this 17 day of January, 1894, at Baltimore, County ofState of Maryland, before me, E. A. Halley, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared George Brooks, who, being by me first duly sworn to answertruly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am about 49 or 50 years old. Occupation, whitewasher.

Residence and postoffice address, 902 White Alley, Baltimore, Md.

Adam Barker and I were boys together. We enlisted the same year, 1864, but he went in ahead of me. He was in the 30th or 39th. I was in Co

E, 19 U.S.C.T. I understood he learned his trade with Mr.

Shanks corner of Lombard and Sharp on Hanover. I used to run errands for him. He kept a shop on the corner of Lexington and Arch for a number of years after the war. The only woman I know of his ever living with was Alice who is now his widow. I have been to his house many a time since the war.

I saw him during the war very often. Our regiments were close together at Petersburg and all through Virginia. He often talked of Alice as the only woman he had ever
