getting a "strip of a girl" into trouble, and then going away into the army. Soon after I first met her, Alice told me she had written to Adam after her first child was born, and he wrote her back to name the child after him, and it was called William Adam.

Alice has never remarried since Adam's death that I have heard talk of. She has three children by Adam under age, Moses, Elijah and Jacob.

Adam and Alice lived together from the time I first knew her till his death. They were generally recognized as husband and wife.

I remember going to Col. Vernon's office as witness for Alice Barker. My husband also went along. We were her identifying witnesses. We also signed a paper testifying for her. We were sworn to book papers by the magistrate.

I am correctly reported herein.
