

mother, in my absence from home. It was a Methodist did it. It lays between three churches, Orchard Street, Sharp Street and Bethel.

There was ten months difference between Jacob and Elijah. I had to wean Jacob when he was ten months old. I suckled the two ^{together} at my breast. Some people used to think they were twins. Elijah's full name is Elijah Adam Barker. He was christened at home by a catholic priest named Dougherty. I don't think it was Father Starb. I don't know what church it was he was connected with.

My son William went away to go into the army and just after Christmas and Jacob was born the following June. I know he was born the very day that Quinter was hung. My nephew George wanted to go down to Washington and my mother would not let him go. Jacob was born about 10 o'clock in the morning.

Elijah was born in the winter in the New Year.
